Changes in the Health Region

As a result of changes in the Regina Qu'Appelle Health Region, our hospital chaplains no longer receive notifications when a Catholic is admitted to a hospital. Please notify your parish office before going to the hospital, or when scheduling surgery and other hospital admissions - or if you know of a fellow parishioner who is in the hospital and would like a visit - you can contact the Catholic chaplains at the following:

- Regina General Hospital: 306-519-1405
- Pasqua Hospital: 306-519-1380
- Wascana Rehabilitation Centre: 306-530-6511

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for anointing of the sick. In case of emergency, patients and families can also call the hospital switchboard to request the Catholic chaplain.

WELL WISHES—Send a patient a message

WELL WISHES is designed to provide family and friends convenient access to patients or residents at facilities in the Regina Qu'Appelle Health Region by using email to send get well messages. Your email is hand-delivered to patients/residents each weekday. All messages are confidential. Upon receipt, your email is printed, folded, taped, and delivered to the recipient's room. Please note that this system is designed for well wishes only. Any other type of messages will not be delivered.

To send an email message, print the name of the hospital or long term care facility, followed by 'well wishes' or click on the following: <http://www.rqhealth.ca/contact/well-wishes-send-a-patient-a-message>. For more information, contact Linda Lucyk, Pastoral Care Coordinator, CTK Parish 306.539.6889 lindalucyk@lucyks.com

The Halcyon Chamber Choir presents a concert entitled "Lost in Darness". Join us at 7:30 pm, Sunday, October 29th at Knox Metropolitan United Church, for an evening of beautiful & soul-touching music. Meditate on the suffering of Mary in Karl Jenkins' "Stabat Mater," and contemplate themes of light & darkness through other exquisite choral works. Tickets available from choir members, Bach and Beyond, or at the door: $20 adults/$15 students/kids free.

- April Polasek

The Dr. Martin LeBoldus Drama Department is pleased to present The Canterbury Tales...or Geoffrey Chaucer's Flying Circus, written by Burton Bumgarner. The play stems from stories written by Chaucer in the 14th century. It is a comedy centered around a group of travellers, who, as they make their way to Canterbury from London, pass the time by competing in a story telling contest. The humour in this new version of Chaucer's tales is like that of a "Monty Python" comedy.

The performances will take place at 7:00 pm in the LeBoldus theatre on November 7th, 8th and 9th. Tickets are available at the office during regular school hours and at the door prior to each performance. They are $12.00 for adults and $10.00 for students. Tickets for children aged twelve and under are free.

Luther Lecture - Dr. Nicholas Terpstra
Professor of History, University of Toronto
"Reframing the Reformation: Religious Refugees in the Early Modern World."
Monday, October 30th, 2017 @ 7:30 pm
Rex Schneider Auditorium, 2nd Floor
Luther College, University of Regina Campus

The Reformation has been seen as marking the dawn of the modern era and inspiring an expansion of intellectual and political freedoms. Yet it is sobering to realize that it was also the time when the religious refugee became a mass phenomenon. How did movements for religious reform create new numbers of refugees while also creating new ways of sheltering them and providing new forms of religious life?

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind." - Matthew 22:37

Do you put other "gods" before God? Is your love of money, power, status or some personal possession greater than your love for God? Do you really recognize that everything you have and everything you are is a gift from God? The good news - it's not too late to put God first in your life in all things.
